The month's challenge

Finish your one-page CV and give your 60-second pitch to three people.

Week 1 Finding direction

Deen: Istikhārah and istishārah

When you make a big decision, pray istikhārah and consult people of knowledge and experience. Together they bring clarity and calm.

Try it this week

Learn the istikhārah du'ā and use it for one decision, together with advice from an elder.

Educational Development: Subjects and careers

Your subjects open or close doors. Find out which courses and careers need which subjects.

Try it this week

Choose three careers you are curious about and list the subjects each needs.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Skills: Exploring careers

The best way to learn about a job is to ask someone who does it. Prepare three questions first.

Try it this week

Ask a family member or neighbour about their work and what they wish they had known.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Personal Development: Strengths, interests, values

A good direction sits where what you are good at, what you enjoy and what matters to you meet.

Try it this week

Draw three circles for strengths, interests and values and look for where they overlap.

Week 2 Preparing

Deen: Ḥalāl work and ethics

Honest work and fair pay are part of the religion. The Prophet ﷺ told us to pay workers their wages before their sweat dries (Ibn Mājah 2443).

Try it this week

List three questions to ask about any job: is it ḥalāl, is it fair, does it let me keep my prayers?

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Educational Development: Plan your studies

Know the subjects, the exams and the dates that lead to your goals, and plan backwards from them.

Try it this week

Make a timeline from now to your next major exam with monthly targets.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Skills: Write a one-page CV

A CV has your details, education, any experience, skills and a short profile. One page, clear headings, no mistakes.

Try it this week

Write your first one-page CV and ask someone to proofread it.

My notes and questions

Personal Development: Professional habits

Punctuality, reliability and politeness make you someone people want to work with.

Try it this week

Be on time for every session this week and do what you promise.

My notes and questions

Week 3 Interviews and networking

Deen: Trust and excellence

Allah loves excellence (iḥsān) in what you do. A reliable person who does a job well earns trust faster than a talented one who cannot be relied on.

Try it this week

Choose one task this week and do it as well as you can, then review it.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Educational Development: Present yourself in writing

A short message of interest should say who you are, what you are asking and why you are suitable.

Try it this week

Write a five-sentence message asking for a volunteer or internship opportunity.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Week 3: Interviews and networking (continued)

Skills: Interview practice

The STAR method answers with a Situation, Task, Action and Result. Practise a few answers aloud.

Try it this week

Practise three interview questions with a family member using the STAR method.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Personal Development: Confident and humble

Say what you can do without exaggeration, and say honestly what you are still learning.

Try it this week

Write three honest sentences about what you can offer.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Week 4 Starting small

Deen: The truthful merchant

The Prophet ﷺ said the truthful, trustworthy merchant will be with the prophets, the truthful and the martyrs (at-Tirmidhī 1209). Honesty is the capital of a business.

Try it this week

Write three promises you would keep to every customer.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Educational Development: Problem, customer, price

A business idea answers three questions: what problem does it solve, who will pay, and how much?

Try it this week

Write one business idea and answer those three questions.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Week 4: Starting small (continued)

Skills: The 60-second pitch

A pitch says the problem, your solution, who it is for and why you. Practise until it is clear and calm.

Try it this week

Deliver a 60-second pitch of your idea to your family.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Personal Development: Effort and trust in Allah

Success comes from effort, learning from failure and trust in Allah. Starting small teaches more than waiting for perfect.

Try it this week

Take one small, real step toward your idea this week and write what you learned.

A page for parents

Share your own work story, including mistakes. Introduce your teenager to people in careers that interest them, and encourage small, ḥalāl ways to earn that fit around their studies.

- What the monthly report shows. Your teenager's facilitator sends a report each month with attendance, a rating for each of the four pillars, assignments handed in and a personal note.
- Three questions to ask this month. What did you learn that surprised you? Which session helped you most, and why? What is one thing I can do to support you?
- How to help. A calm place and time to study, early nights, and your interest. Praise effort and honesty more than marks.

رَبَّنَا هَبْ لَنَا مِنْ أَزْوَاجِنَا وَذُرِّيَّاتِنَا قُرَّةَ أَعْيُنٍ وَاجْعَلْنَا لِلْمُتَّقِينَ إِمَامًا

"Our Lord, grant us from our spouses and offspring comfort to our eyes and make us a leader for the righteous."

Al-Furqān 25:74
