GUIDE

وَقُل رَّبِّ زِدْنِي عِلْمًا

"And say: My Lord, increase me in knowledge." (Ṭā Hā 20:114)

Month 4

The Qur'an and Knowledge

Read, understand, remember and share. A guide for students for each live session this month.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيمِ

Month 4: The Qur’an and Knowledge

The first word revealed was “Read”. This month you build a daily relationship with the Qur’an and learn to read, understand, remember and share what you learn.

> وَقُل رَّبِّ زِدْنِي عِلْمًا
>
> “And say: My Lord, increase me in knowledge.”
>
> Ṭā Hā 20:114

How to use this guide

1. Before each session, read that session’s short teaching below. It takes two minutes.
2. During the session, take notes on the lines provided and write one question to ask.
3. After the session, do the “Try it” action within two days.
4. Every day, tick your habit tracker. Every Sunday, spend five minutes reviewing the week.
5. At the end of the month, complete the Month Review and show it to a parent or your facilitator.

This month at a glance

Week	Deen	Educational Development	Skills	Personal Development
Week 1 Reading well	A daily portion	Reading actively	Skim and scan	Stay curious
Week 2 Understanding	Tadabbur: reflecting	Say it in your own words	Reliable sources	Think critically
Week 3 Remembering	Memorising and revising	Memory tools	Mind maps	Patience with progress
Week 4 Sharing knowledge	Learn, act, teach	Teach to learn	The two-minute explanation	Ask for help

The month's challenge

Keep your daily Qur'an portion for 21 days and write one sentence of reflection each day.

Week 1 Reading well

Deen: A daily portion

A fixed daily portion, even a small one, keeps the Qur'an alive in the heart. The Prophet ﷺ loved regular deeds over occasional bursts (al-Bukhārī 6464).

Try it this week

Choose a daily portion you can keep, such as one page after Fajr, and read it for seven days.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

Educational Development: Reading actively

Underline key words, write questions in the margin and summarise each section. Active readers remember far more than passive ones.

Try it this week

Take a short passage and mark three key words, one question and a one-line summary.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

Skills: Skim and scan

Skimming finds the main idea quickly; scanning finds a specific fact. Use each for its own purpose.

Try it this week

Skim a news article in two minutes and state its main point. Then scan it for one date or name.

My notes and questions

Personal Development: Stay curious

Curiosity is the engine of learning. Asking “why?” and “how do we know?” turns information into understanding.

Try it this week

Ask “why?” about three things you take for granted this week and find answers.

My notes and questions

Week 2 Understanding

Deen: Tadabbur: reflecting

Allah asks, “Do they not reflect on the Qur’an?” (Muḥammad 47:24). Reflection means slowing down on a verse, asking what it says to you, and acting on it.

Try it this week

Choose one verse each day. Read its meaning and write one sentence on what it asks of you.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

Educational Development: Say it in your own words

If you cannot explain a thing simply, you do not yet understand it. Rewriting in your own words shows what is missing.

Try it this week

Pick a topic from this week and explain it in five sentences without looking at your notes.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

Skills: Reliable sources

Good research uses sources that are named, expert and checkable. A random post is not a source.

Try it this week

Find two reliable sources on one question and note how you know they are reliable.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

Personal Development: Think critically

Critical thinking asks: what is the claim, what is the evidence, and who says so? It protects you from being misled.

Try it this week

Take a claim you heard this week and test it with those three questions.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

Week 3 Remembering

Deen: Memorising and revising

New memorisation needs constant revision, or it slips away. A little new, a little recent and a little old each day is a sound rhythm.

Try it this week

Revise a short sūrah you know each day, and learn one new verse of a short sūrah this week.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

Educational Development: Memory tools

Chunk information into small groups, link new facts to what you know, and test yourself at spaced intervals.

Try it this week

Take ten facts, group them into three chunks and test yourself tomorrow and next week.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

Week 3: Remembering (continued)

Skills: Mind maps

A mind map shows how ideas connect. Put the main topic in the middle and branch out with key words.

Try it this week

Make a mind map of one topic you studied this month.

My notes and questions

Personal Development: Patience with progress

Learning is slow before it is fast. Comparing your first weeks to someone else's tenth year will only discourage you.

Try it this week

Write down one area where you have improved since the start of the year, however small.

My notes and questions

Week 4 Sharing knowledge

Deen: Learn, act, teach

The Prophet ﷺ said the best of you are those who learn the Qur'an and teach it (al-Bukhārī 5027). Knowledge grows when it is acted on and shared.

Try it this week

Teach one verse or one lesson from this month to a family member.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

Educational Development: Teach to learn

Explaining a topic to someone else exposes gaps in your understanding and makes it stick.

Try it this week

Teach a younger sibling or friend something you learned this week, using a simple example.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

Week 4: Sharing knowledge (continued)

Skills: The two-minute explanation

A good short explanation has one point, one example and a clear ending.

Try it this week

Prepare and deliver a two-minute explanation of one idea to someone.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

Personal Development: Ask for help

Asking for help is a mark of a serious learner. Teachers and friends are glad to help when you show you tried first.

Try it this week

Ask for help on one thing you are stuck on and say what you have already tried.

Month review

Rate yourself honestly from 1 (needs support) to 5 (excelling), then write one win and one thing to improve.

A page for parents

Read a short passage of Qur'an together a few times a week and talk about what it means. Let your teenager teach you something they learned; teaching is the best revision.

- What the monthly report shows. Your teenager's facilitator sends a report each month with attendance, a rating for each of the four pillars, assignments handed in and a personal note.
- Three questions to ask this month. What did you learn that surprised you? Which session helped you most, and why? What is one thing I can do to support you?
- How to help. A calm place and time to study, early nights, and your interest. Praise effort and honesty more than marks.

رَبَّنَا هَبْ لَنَا مِنْ أَزْوَاجِنَا وَذُرِّيَّاتِنَا قُرَّةَ أَعْيُنٍ وَاجْعَلْنَا لِلْمُتَّقِينَ إِمَامًا

"Our Lord, grant us from our spouses and offspring comfort to our eyes and make us a leader for the righteous."

Al-Furqān 25:74

Next month

Month 5: Speaking with Confidence. Listen well, speak clearly, present with calm.
