The month’s challenge

Finish your portfolio, your year plan and your three thank-yous before the month ends.

Week 1 Looking back

Deen: Muḥāsabah of the year

Allah tells us to look at what we have sent ahead for tomorrow (al-Ḥashr 59:18). A sincere review of the year, with thanks for the good and repentance for the lapses, renews the heart.

Try it this week

Write what you did well in deen this year, what you neglected and one step to improve.

Educational Development: Gather what you learned

Review your notes, guides and work from the year and write a one-page summary of the ten most important things.

Try it this week

Write your one-page summary of the year's ten key lessons.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

Week 1: Looking back (continued)

Skills: Build a portfolio

A portfolio collects your best work: a CV, a talk, a poster, a report. It shows what you can do.

Try it this week

Collect five pieces of your best work in one folder and add a one-line description of each.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Personal Development: What changed in me

Compare who you were at the start of the year with who you are now. Seeing the change keeps you going.

Try it this week

Write a letter to yourself of a year ago, saying what you have learned.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Week 2 Keeping the good

Deen: Istiqāmah: steadiness

The Prophet ﷺ was told to say, “I believe in Allah,” and then be steadfast (Muslim 38). Steadiness after effort is the sign of a real change.

Try it this week

Choose three habits from this year to keep for life and write how you will protect them.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Educational Development: Fix weak areas

Look at your marks and notes and choose the two topics you find hardest. Make a plan to practise them weekly.

Try it this week

List your two weakest topics and schedule weekly practice for them.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Week 2: Keeping the good (continued)

Skills: Deepen one skill

Skills grow when you practise one thing for a long time. Choose one skill you will build further.

Try it this week

Choose one skill and set a goal for it for the next three months.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Personal Development: Bounce back

Everyone has setbacks. People who do well make a plan for what to do when they fall, and begin again quickly.

Try it this week

Write three things that went wrong this year, what you learned and how you will respond next time.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Week 3 Planning ahead

Deen: Goals with the akhirah in mind

Plan for this world while keeping the next in view. Ask Allah for guidance in every plan and for steadiness on the path.

Try it this week

Write your goals for next year in deen, study, skill and character, and make a duʿā over them.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Educational Development: A year plan

Break the year into quarters, each with one main goal and monthly checkpoints.

Try it this week

Write four quarterly goals for next year with one checkpoint each month.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Week 3: Planning ahead (continued)

Skills: Make a roadmap

A roadmap shows the steps and dates on one page. It makes a big goal feel doable.

Try it this week

Draw a one-page roadmap of your main goal for next year.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Personal Development: Mentors and accountability

No one grows alone. Choose a mentor or friend who will ask about your goals every month.

Try it this week

Ask one person to check on your goals every month and tell them the first date.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Week 4 Gratitude and legacy

Deen: Thanking people

The Prophet ﷺ said whoever does not thank people does not thank Allah (at-Tirmidhī 1954). Gratitude to those who helped you completes gratitude to Allah.

Try it this week

Thank in person or in writing three people who helped you this year.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Educational Development: Share what you learned

Teaching others is the best way to keep what you have learned and to benefit others.

Try it this week

Teach one thing you learned this year to a younger person.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Week 4: Gratitude and legacy (continued)

Skills: Present your year

Prepare a three-minute talk on the year: what you set out to do, what you did, what you learned and what is next.

Try it this week

Give your three-minute talk to the circle, your family or a friend.

My notes and questions

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Personal Development: Your legacy

What do you want to be known for? Choose a few words that describe the person you are becoming and live toward them.

Try it this week

Write three sentences describing the person you want to be in five years.

A page for parents

Sit down together and review the year with your teenager. Celebrate specific growth, thank them, and ask what support they want for next year.

- What the monthly report shows. Your teenager's facilitator sends a report each month with attendance, a rating for each of the four pillars, assignments handed in and a personal note.
- Three questions to ask this month. What did you learn that surprised you? Which session helped you most, and why? What is one thing I can do to support you?
- How to help. A calm place and time to study, early nights, and your interest. Praise effort and honesty more than marks.
