وَرَتِّلِ الْقُرْآنَ تَرْتِيلًا

"And recite the Qur'an with measured recitation." (al-Muzzammil 73:4)

My Hifdh Planner

A printable planner for memorising the Qur'an: set your goal, plan each week, track every juz and keep your revision firm.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَٰنِ الرَّحِيمِ

How to use this planner

This planner is your hifdh in one place: your goal, your weekly plan, what you memorised and revised each day, and what your teacher said. Print it, keep it beside your mushaf, and fill it in every day. A few lines a day is enough.

Every day has three parts

1	New lesson (sabaq): the new portion you memorise today, recited to your teacher or a parent.
2	Recent revision (sabqī): the last few pages or the last juz you memorised, revised every day so the new lesson settles.
3	Old revision (manzil): a portion of everything older, in rotation, so nothing you memorised is forgotten.

- Use one mushaf, the same print every day, so your memory of each page stays reliable.
- Write in pencil so you can correct, and be honest. The planner is for you, not for show.
- Bring it to class. Ask your teacher to tick the "Teacher check" box and write a short note.
- Parents: look at it once a week, praise the effort, and sign the monthly review.

> أَحَبُّ الْأَعْمَالِ إِلَى اللَّهِ أَدْوَمُهَا وَإِنْ قَلَّ
> "The most beloved deeds to Allah are the most consistent, even if small."
>
> Narrated by al-Bukhārī (6464) and Muslim (783).

Need the method?

This planner goes with our guides Steady Hifdh (how to build a daily routine) and Mastering the Mutashābihāt (how to keep similar verses apart), both at himaayahschools.com/resources.html.

Start My hifdh profile and goal

Name
Started on
My teacher
Class times
Mushaf I use	For example: Madinah mushaf, 15 lines, 604 pages
What I have memorised so far
Where I am now	Surah _____ Ayah __ Page ___
My goal	For example: Juz ʿAmma by June, or the whole Qur'an in 3 years
My daily new lesson	For example: 5 lines, half a page, 1 page
My daily time	For example: 30 minutes after Fajr

My intention

Why do I want to memorise the Qur'an? Write it in your own words and read it when you feel tired.

_____

_____

_____

_____

خَيْرُكُمْ مَنْ تَعَلَّمَ الْقُرْآنَ وَعَلَّمَهُ

"The best of you are those who learn the Qur'an and teach it."

Narrated by al-Bukhārī (5027).

Plan How long will it take?

The Madinah mushaf most students use has 604 pages (about 20 pages a juz). This table shows roughly how long the whole Qur'an takes at different daily new lessons, if you memorise five days a week and keep the other days for revision. Real progress depends on revision, illness, exams and holidays, so treat it as a guide and agree your pace with your teacher.

Daily new lesson	One juz	The whole Qur'an
5 lines (a third of a page)	about 12 weeks	about 83 months (7.0 years)
Half a page	about 8 weeks	about 56 months (4.6 years)
1 page	about 4 weeks	about 28 months (2.3 years)
1.5 pages	about 3 weeks	about 19 months (1.5 years)
2 pages	about 2 weeks	about 14 months (1.2 years)

Choose a pace you can keep

A smaller lesson you never miss is better than a big one you keep skipping. Many students start with 5 lines or half a page and increase it once their revision is steady.

As your memorised portion grows, your old revision grows too. If revision starts to slip, slow the new lesson rather than stopping revision.

My plan

Daily new lesson
Days a week for new lessons
My target date
Days for revision only

Start: I began this juz. Done: I memorised all of it. Test: my teacher heard it in one sitting. Firm: I recite it in old revision with very few mistakes.

Track Surah checklist

Tick a surah when it is memorised and tested. Many students memorise from an-Nās backwards through Juz ʿAmma first; follow your teacher's order.

Revise My old-revision rotation

Old revision (manzil) works best as a fixed rotation: you revise a set portion each day, in order, and start again when you reach the end. As a guide, try to bring every juz you have memorised round at least once every one to two weeks. Agree the amounts with your teacher.

If you have memorised	Old revision each day (a guide)	Each juz comes round about every
1 to 3 juz	A quarter to half a juz	4 to 6 days
4 to 10 juz	Half to 1 juz	1 to 2 weeks
11 to 20 juz	1 to 2 juz	1 to 2 weeks
21 to 30 juz	2 to 3 juz	1 to 2 weeks

My rotation

Day	Old revision (from – to)	Day	Old revision (from – to)
Day 1		Day 8
Day 2		Day 9
Day 3		Day 10
Day 4		Day 11
Day 5		Day 12
Day 6		Day 13
Day 7		Day 14

When you reach the last day, start again at Day 1. Rewrite the rotation when you add a new juz.

Log Mistake log

Write every place where you keep making the same mistake, the correct wording, and the dates you recited it correctly. When you have three correct dates, the mistake is fixed.

Surah : ayah	My mistake	The correct wording	Correct on (three dates)

Du‘ā’ Ask Allah to make the Qur’an live in your heart

أَنْ تَجْعَلَ الْقُرْآنَ رَبِيعَ قَلْبِي، وَنُورَ صَدْرِي، وَجِلَاءَ حُزْنِي، وَذَهَابَ هَمِّي ...

“... that You make the Qur’an the spring of my heart, the light of my chest, the removal of my sadness and the departure of my worry.”

From a longer du‘ā’ narrated by Aḥmad (3712); graded authentic by al-Albānī.
