كِتَابٌ أَنزَلْنَاهُ إِلَيْكَ مُبَارَكٌ لِّيَدَّبَّرُوا آيَاتِهِ

"A blessed Book which We have revealed to you, that they might reflect upon its verses." (Ṣād 38:29)

Juz ʿAmma Explained

All 37 sūrahs of the thirtieth juz explained simply: what each is about, its lessons, and the authentic reports about it.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَٰنِ الرَّحِيمِ

Before you begin

Juz ʿAmma, the thirtieth part of the Qur'an, is the part we memorise first and recite most in our prayers. Its thirty-seven sūrahs are short, powerful and mostly revealed in Makkah. They speak of Allah's oneness and power, the Day of Resurrection, Paradise and Hell, and the character of the believer.

This booklet explains every sūrah of Juz ʿAmma simply, for children, teenagers and adults: its name and meaning, the first verse in Arabic, what it is about, the lessons to live by, and any authentic report about its revelation or virtue. It is a first step in tafsīr, so that what we recite in the prayer reaches the heart.

> كِتَابٌ أَنزَلْنَاهُ إِلَيْكَ مُبَارَكٌ لِّيَدَّبَّرُوا آيَاتِهِ وَلِيَتَذَكَّرَ أُولُو الْأَلْبَابِ

> "A blessed Book which We have revealed to you, that they might reflect upon its verses and that people of understanding would be reminded."
>
> Ṣād 38:29.

How to use this booklet

Read the explanation of a sūrah before you memorise it, and again before you recite it in the prayer.

Families: take one sūrah after Maghrib each day; read it together, read its explanation, and ask each person for one lesson.

For a deeper study, read Tafsīr Ibn Kathīr or Tafsīr as-Saʿdī on the same sūrah with a teacher.

78 · An-Nabaʾ · The Great News

40 verses · Makkan

عَمَّ يَتَسَآءَلُونَ

The disbelievers argue about the “great news” of the Resurrection. Allah answers with the signs of His power in the earth, the mountains, sleep, night and day, the sun and the rain, then describes the Day of Decision, the punishment of the transgressors and the gardens of the righteous.

- The One who created everything around us can easily bring us back.
- On that Day the disbeliever will wish he were dust (78:40).

79 · An-Nāziʿāt · Those Who Pull Out

46 verses · Makkan

وَٱلنَّٰزِعَٰتِ غَرْقًا

Allah swears by the angels who take out souls, then describes the overwhelming blast of the Resurrection. He tells the story of Mūsā and Pharaoh, who claimed “I am your lord, most high”, and asks: are you harder to create, or the heaven?

- Whoever fears standing before his Lord and restrains himself from desire, Paradise is his home (79:40–41).
- The Hour will feel as if this life lasted only an evening or a morning (79:46).

80 · ʿAbasa · He Frowned

42 verses · Makkan

عَبَسَ وَتَوَلَّىٰٓ

The Prophet ﷺ was speaking with leaders of Quraysh, hoping they would accept Islām, when the blind Companion ʿAbdullāh ibn Umm Maktūm came asking to be taught. He frowned and turned away, and Allah revealed this sūrah, teaching that the sincere seeker comes first.

- Every person who sincerely seeks guidance deserves our attention, whatever his status.
- On the Day of Resurrection a man will flee from his brother, mother, father, wife and children (80:34–36).

Revealed about Ibn Umm Maktūm (at-Tirmidhī, 3331).

81 · At-Takwīr · The Folding Up

29 verses · Makkan

إِذَا ٱلشَّمْسُ كُوِّرَتْ

Twelve scenes of the end of the world: the sun folded up, the stars falling, the seas set on fire, and the baby girl buried alive asked for what sin she was killed. Then Allah swears that the Qur'an is the word of a noble messenger, Jibrīl.

- Every soul will know what it has brought (81:14).
- Guidance is open to whoever wills to be upright, but only by Allah's will (81:28–29).

"Whoever would like to look at the Day of Resurrection as if seeing it with his own eyes, let him read at-Takwīr, al-Infiṭār and al-Inshiqāq" (at-Tirmidhī, 3333).

82 · Al-Infiṭār · The Splitting

19 verses · Makkan

إِذَا ٱلسَّمَآءُ ٱنفَطَرَتْ

When the sky splits and the graves are overturned, every soul will know what it sent ahead and what it left behind. Allah asks: what has deceived you about your Generous Lord, who created and shaped you? Noble scribes record everything.

- Do not let Allah's generosity deceive you into disobeying Him.
- On that Day no soul will have power to do anything for another (82:19).

83 · Al-Muṭaffifīn · Those Who Give Short Measure

36 verses · Makkan

وَيْلٌ لِّلْمُطَفِّفِينَ

A warning to those who take full measure for themselves but give less to others. It describes the record of the wicked in Sijjīn and of the righteous in ʿIlliyyīn, and how the disbelievers used to laugh at the believers.

- Cheating in trade, even a little, is a major sin.
- Sins cover the heart like rust (rān) until it no longer sees the truth (83:14).

The Prophet ﷺ explained that each sin leaves a black spot on the heart, removed by repentance (at-Tirmidhī, 3334).

84 · Al-Inshiqāq · The Splitting Open

25 verses · Makkan

إِذَا ٱلسَّمَآءُ ٱنشَقَّتْ

The sky and the earth obey their Lord on the Last Day. The one given his book in his right hand will have an easy reckoning and return to his people happy; the one given it behind his back will cry out for destruction.

- O mankind, you are labouring towards your Lord and will meet Him (84:6).
- Ask Allah for an easy reckoning.

ʿĀʾishah asked about the easy reckoning; the Prophet ﷺ said it is the presentation of deeds, and whoever is questioned closely is ruined (al-Bukhārī, 4939).

85 · Al-Burūj · The Great Stars

22 verses · Makkan

وَٱلسَّمَآءِ ذَاتِ ٱلْبُرُوجِ

The story of the people of the ditch, who burned the believers for their faith while they sat watching. Allah promises punishment for those who persecute believers, and reminds that He is the Forgiving, the Loving, Lord of the Glorious Throne.

- Faith is worth more than life itself.
- Those who persecute believers and do not repent face the punishment of Hell (85:10).

The full story of the boy, the king and the monk is in Muslim (3005).

86 · Aṭ-Ṭāriq · The Night-Comer

17 verses · Makkan

وَٱلسَّمَآءِ وَٱلطَّارِقِ

Allah swears by the sky and the piercing star that every soul has a guardian over it. Man was created from a gushing fluid; the One who created him can bring him back, on the Day when secrets are tested.

- Every soul has a guardian recording its deeds (86:4).
- The Qur'an is a decisive word, not a joke (86:13–14).

87 · Al-Aʿlā · The Most High

19 verses · Makkan

سَبِّحِ ٱسْمَ رَبِّكَ ٱلْأَعْلَى

A command to glorify the Most High, who created, proportioned and guided. Allah promises the Prophet ﷺ that he will not forget the Qur'an, and explains that the one who purifies himself succeeds, while people prefer this life though the Hereafter is better and more lasting.

- Purify yourself, remember Allah and pray (87:14–15).
- Do not prefer this short life over the Hereafter.

The Prophet ﷺ recited al-Aʿlā and al-Ghāshiyah in the Jumuʿah and ʿĪd prayers (Muslim, 878).

88 · Al-Ghāshiyah · The Overwhelming

26 verses · Makkan

هَلْ أَتَىٰكَ حَدِيثُ ٱلْغَٰشِيَةِ

Two kinds of faces on the Day of Resurrection: humbled, labouring and burning, or joyful in a lofty garden. Then Allah invites us to look at the camel, the sky, the mountains and the earth, and tells the Prophet ﷺ that his task is only to remind.

- Reflect on Allah's creation around you.
- Our duty is to remind; guidance is from Allah (88:21–22).

89 · Al-Fajr · The Dawn

30 verses · Makkan

وَٱلْفَجْرِ

Allah swears by the dawn and ten nights, and recalls the destruction of ʿĀd, Thamūd and Pharaoh. He corrects man's thinking: wealth is not a sign of honour nor poverty of disgrace; both are tests. It ends with the call to the soul at peace.

- Honour orphans and feed the poor; do not love wealth with excessive love.
- "O soul at peace, return to your Lord, well-pleased and pleasing" (89:27–28).

Many scholars explain the ten nights as the first ten of Dhul-Ḥijjah.

90 · Al-Balad · The City

20 verses · Makkan

لَآ أُقْسِمُ بِهَٰذَا ٱلْبَلَدِ

Allah swears by Makkah that man was created in hardship. He gave him eyes, a tongue and lips and showed him the two ways. The steep path is freeing a slave and feeding the hungry orphan and the poor, with faith, patience and mercy.

- The way to Paradise is uphill: generosity, patience and mercy.
- Allah gave us the means to see and choose; we are responsible.

91 · Ash-Shams · The Sun

15 verses · Makkan

وَٱلشَّمْسِ وَضُحَىٰهَا

Eleven oaths, the most in one place in the Qur'an, leading to one truth: whoever purifies his soul succeeds, and whoever corrupts it fails. The example is Thamūd, who killed the she-camel of Allah and were destroyed.

- Purifying the soul (tazkiyah) is the key to success (91:9–10).
- Arrogance and rejecting a clear sign bring destruction.

92 · Al-Layl · The Night

21 verses · Makkan

وَٱلَّيْلِ إِذَا يَغْشَىٰ

People's efforts differ. Whoever gives, fears Allah and believes in the best reward, Allah will ease him towards ease; whoever is stingy and thinks himself self-sufficient, Allah will ease him towards difficulty.

- Give for the sake of Allah, seeking only His face (92:19–20).
- Each person is made easy for what he was created for.

The Prophet ﷺ recited 92:5–10 when explaining the decree (al-Bukhārī, 4949). The commentators say the last verses praise Abū Bakr, who freed slaves for Allah.

93 · Aḍ-Ḍuḥā · The Morning Light

11 verses · Makkan

وَٱلضُّحَىٰ

When revelation paused for a time and some mocked the Prophet ﷺ, Allah comforted him: your Lord has not abandoned you. He reminded him that he was an orphan and Allah sheltered him, lost and He guided him, poor and He enriched him.

- Allah has not abandoned you in your hard times; what comes later is better.
- Be kind to the orphan and the one who asks, and speak of Allah's blessings.

Revealed when revelation paused (al-Bukhārī 4950, Muslim 1797).

94 · Ash-Sharḥ · The Opening Up

8 verses · Makkan

أَلَمْ نَشْرَحْ لَكَ صَدْرَكَ

Allah reminds the Prophet ﷺ that He expanded his chest, removed his burden and raised his mention. Twice He promises: with hardship comes ease.

- "Indeed, with hardship comes ease" (94:5–6), said twice.
- When you finish one task, strive in the next, and turn to your Lord.

95 · At-Tīn · The Fig

8 verses · Makkan

وَٱلتِّينِ وَٱلزَّيْتُونِ

Allah swears by the fig, the olive, Mount Sinai and the secure city of Makkah that He created man in the best form, then returns him to the lowest of the low, except those who believe and do good.

- Our honour lies in faith and good deeds, not in our form.
- Allah is the most just of judges (95:8).

96 · Al-ʿAlaq · The Clinging Clot

19 verses · Makkan

اقْرَأْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ

Its first five verses were the first revelation, in the cave of Ḥirāʾ: "Read in the name of your Lord who created." The rest warns the man who tried to stop the Prophet ﷺ from praying, and ends: prostrate and draw near.

- Islām began with reading and knowledge.
- Sujūd brings you nearest to Allah (96:19).

The first revelation (al-Bukhārī 3, Muslim 160). The man who forbade the prayer was Abū Jahl (Muslim, 2797).

97 · Al-Qadr · The Decree

5 verses · Makkan

إِنَّا أَنزَلْنَاهُ فِي لَيْلَةِ الْقَدْرِ

The Qur'an was sent down on Laylat al-Qadr, a night better than a thousand months, when the angels and Jibrīl descend, and which is peace until dawn.

- Seek Laylat al-Qadr in the last ten nights of Ramaḍān.
- "Whoever stands in prayer on Laylat al-Qadr with faith and hope of reward, his past sins are forgiven" (al-Bukhārī 1901, Muslim 760).

98 · Al-Bayyinah · The Clear Proof

8 verses · Madinan

لَمْ يَكُنِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ وَالْمُشْرِكِينَ مُنفَكِّينَ حَتَّىٰ تَأْتِيَهُمُ الْبَيِّنَةُ

The People of the Book and the idolaters did not divide until clear proof came to them, a messenger reciting purified pages. They were only commanded to worship Allah sincerely, pray and give zakāh. The best of creation are those who believe and do good.

- The religion is sincere worship of Allah, prayer and zakāh (98:5).
- Those who fear their Lord will have gardens of eternity, pleased with Him and He with them (98:8).

The Prophet ﷺ recited it to Ubayy ibn Kaʿb at Allah's command, and Ubayy wept (al-Bukhārī, 4959).

99 · Az-Zalzalah · The Earthquake

8 verses · Madinan

إِذَا زُلْزِلَتِ الْأَرْضُ زِلْزَالَهَا

When the earth shakes its last shaking and brings out its burdens, it will report everything done on it. Then people come forth in scattered groups to be shown their deeds.

- Whoever does an atom's weight of good will see it, and whoever does an atom's weight of evil will see it (99:7–8).
- No deed is too small to count.

100 · Al-ʿĀdiyāt · The Chargers

11 verses · Makkan

وَٱلْعَٰدِيَٰتِ ضَبْحًا

Allah swears by the charging horses that man is ungrateful to his Lord and intensely loves wealth. Does he not know what will happen when the graves are emptied?

- Ingratitude and love of wealth are diseases of the heart.
- Allah knows everything in the chests (100:10–11).

101 · Al-Qāriʿah · The Striking Calamity

11 verses · Makkan

ٱلْقَارِعَةُ

On the Day of the Striking Calamity people will be like scattered moths and the mountains like fluffed wool. Whoever's scales are heavy will be in a pleasant life; whoever's are light, his home is a blazing Fire.

- Make your scales heavy with good deeds.
- Good character is among the heaviest things on the scale (at-Tirmidhī, 2002).

102 · At-Takāthur · Competing for More

8 verses · Makkan

أَلْهَىٰكُمُ ٱلتَّكَاثُرُ

Competing for more wealth and children distracts people until they reach the graves. They will surely see Hell, and be asked about every blessing.

- Do not let competition for this world distract you from the Hereafter.
- You will be asked about every blessing, even cool water (102:8).

"The son of Ādam says: my wealth, my wealth! But what is yours except what you ate and used up, wore out, or gave in charity and sent ahead?" (Muslim, 2958).

103 · Al-ʿAṣr · Time

3 verses · Makkan

وَٱلْعَصْرِ

By time, mankind is in loss, except those who believe, do good, advise one another to the truth and advise one another to patience.

- Four things save us from loss: faith, good deeds, calling to truth and calling to patience.
- Time is your capital: use it well.

Imām ash-Shāfiʿī said that if people reflected on this sūrah alone, it would be enough for them.

104 · Al-Humazah · The Slanderer

9 verses · Makkan

وَيْلٌ لِّكُلِّ هُمَزَةٍ لُّمَزَةٍ

Woe to every backbiter and slanderer who gathers wealth and counts it, thinking it will make him immortal. He will be thrown into al-Ḥuṭamah, the crushing Fire.

- Guard your tongue from mocking and backbiting.
- Wealth will not make anyone live forever.

105 · Al-Fīl · The Elephant

5 verses · Makkan

أَلَمْ تَرَ كَيْفَ فَعَلَ رَبُّكَ بِأَصْحَٰبِ ٱلْفِيلِ

The story of Abrahah, who marched on Makkah with elephants to destroy the Kaʿbah in the year the Prophet ﷺ was born. Allah sent birds in flocks with stones of baked clay and made them like eaten straw.

- Allah protects His House.
- No power can stand against Allah's plan.

106 · Quraysh · Quraysh

4 verses · Makkan

لِإِيلَٰفِ قُرَيْشٍ

Allah reminds Quraysh of His favours: their safe trading journeys in winter and summer, food in hunger and safety from fear. So let them worship the Lord of this House.

- Blessings should lead to worship and gratitude.
- Food and security are among Allah's greatest gifts.

107 · Al-Māʿūn · Small Kindnesses

7 verses · Makkan

أَرَءَيْتَ ٱلَّذِي يُكَذِّبُ بِٱلدِّينِ

The one who denies the Judgement pushes away the orphan and does not encourage feeding the poor. Woe to those who are heedless of their prayer, who show off, and who refuse even small kindnesses.

- Faith shows in kindness to the orphan and the poor.
- Pray on time, sincerely, not for show.

108 · Al-Kawthar · Abundance

3 verses · Makkan

إِنَّآ أَعْطَيْنَٰكَ ٱلْكَوْثَرَ

Allah gave the Prophet ﷺ al-Kawthar, so he should pray and sacrifice for his Lord. The one who hates him is the one cut off.

- Al-Kawthar is a river in Paradise, and his pool on the Day of Resurrection.
- Respond to blessings with prayer and sacrifice for Allah alone.

The Prophet ﷺ explained al-Kawthar as a river his Lord promised him (Muslim, 400). It is the shortest sūrah of the Qur'an.

109 · Al-Kāfirūn · The Disbelievers

6 verses · Makkan

قُلْ يَٰٓأَيُّهَا ٱلْكَٰفِرُونَ

It is reported that Quraysh proposed that the Prophet ﷺ worship their gods for a year and they would worship Allah for a year. Allah commanded him to reply clearly: I do not worship what you worship. For you your religion, and for me mine.

- There is no compromise in worship: tawḥīd is clear.
- There is no compulsion in religion, but there is no mixing of worship.

Recited with al-Ikhlāṣ in the two sunnah rakʿahs of Fajr (Muslim, 726).

110 · An-Naṣr · Divine Help

3 verses · Madinan

إِذَا جَآءَ نَصْرُ ٱللَّهِ وَٱلْفَتْحُ

When Allah's help and the Opening of Makkah come and people enter the religion in crowds, glorify your Lord, praise Him and seek His forgiveness.

- After success, glorify Allah and seek forgiveness, not pride.
- Ibn ʿAbbās understood from it that the Prophet's ﷺ time was near.

(al-Bukhārī, 4970). After it, the Prophet ﷺ often said in rukūʿ and sujūd: "Subḥānaka Allāhumma rabbanā wa biḥamdika, Allāhumma ighfir lī" (al-Bukhārī 4968, Muslim 484).

111 · Al-Masad · The Palm Fibre

5 verses · Makkan

تَبَّتْ يَدَآ أَبِي لَهَبٍ وَتَبَّ

When the Prophet ﷺ first called his clan on the mount of aṣ-Ṣafā, his uncle Abū Lahab cursed him. Allah revealed that Abū Lahab and his wife, who spread harm against the Prophet ﷺ, would be in the Fire. He died a disbeliever, as the Qur'an foretold.

- Family ties do not save a person without faith.
- Opposing the truth brings loss.

Revealed on the day of aṣ-Ṣafā (al-Bukhārī, 4971).

112 · Al-Ikhlāṣ · Sincerity

4 verses · Makkan

قُلْ هُوَ ٱللَّهُ أَحَدٌ

The purest statement of tawḥīd: Allah is One, the Eternal Refuge; He neither begets nor is born, and there is none like Him.

- Know Allah as He described Himself.
- Love of this sūrah is a cause for Allah's love (al-Bukhārī, 7375).

"It is equal to a third of the Qur'an" (al-Bukhārī, 5013).

113 · Al-Falaq · The Daybreak

5 verses · Makkan

قُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ ٱلْفَلَقِ

Seek refuge in the Lord of daybreak from the evil of what He created, the darkness of night, those who blow on knots, and the envier when he envies.

- Seek protection from Allah alone, not from charms.
- Recite it morning, evening and before sleep.

"Have you not seen verses revealed tonight, the like of which have never been seen? Qul aʿūdhu bi-rabbil-falaq and Qul aʿūdhu bi-rabbin-nās" (Muslim, 814).

114 · An-Nās · Mankind

6 verses · Makkan

قُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ ٱلنَّاسِ

Seek refuge in the Lord, King and God of mankind from the evil of the whisperer who withdraws, who whispers in people's hearts, from among jinn and men.

- Shayṭān whispers and withdraws when Allah is remembered.
- Allah is our Lord, our King and our God.

The Prophet ﷺ would recite al-Ikhlāṣ, al-Falaq and an-Nās into his hands every night and wipe over his body (al-Bukhārī, 5017).

Understand what you recite.

This booklet from the Himaayah Madrasah explains every sūrah of Juz ʿAmma for children, teenagers and adults, so that what we recite in the prayer reaches the heart.

- All 37 sūrahs, from an-Nabaʾ to an-Nās
- The first verse of each in Arabic
- What each sūrah is about, in plain words
- Lessons to live by, and authentic reports
- A memorisation tracker and a self-test
